Questions to Consider:

- How do I define worship?
- What expression(s) of worship am I most comfortable with?
- What expression(s) of worship am I most uncomfortable with? Why?
- How do I handle expressions of worship that make me uncomfortable?
- When was the last time I stretched myself to express my worship in a less familiar manner?

There are many good definitions of worship out, here are a few samples:

- Worship is declaring His worth.
- Worship is a meeting between God and His people.
- Worship is entering into His Presence.
- Worship is to honor with extravagant love and extreme submission.
- Worship is the activity of glorifying God in his presence with our voices and hearts.

What is my definition of worship?
